GCAA ADVISORY CIRCULAR

PERSONNEL LICENCING
AC NO: GCAA AC/PEL-002 ISS 2

SUBJECT:

TIME OF EXPIRY OF VALIDITY PERIODS

DATE REVISED: 01-03-2024
REVISED BY: Director, Safety and Security

1. Purpose:

This Advisory Circular informs about the establishment of a standard time of expiry in the expiry month of aviation personnel licences, ratings, certificates, authorisations and validations.

By issue of this Advisory Circular No. GCAA AC/PEL-002 ISS 2, all previous versions of this Advisory Circular issued before March 1, 2024, are effectively cancelled.

2. General:

An Airman licence, rating, certificate, authorisation or validation that is renewed or issued after the effective date of this circular will expire at midnight of the last day of the expiry month of that licence, rating, certificate, authorisation or validation.

[Holders requiring renewal of any of the above-mentioned documents should initiate the renewal process at least three weeks before its expiry date. Where a medical examination is required for the renewal of an aviation personnel licence, that medical examination may be done up to forty-five days before the current medical assessment expires.]
